> A coding index has been removed from the data cube. A coding index may be of use to anyone seeking to code responses to the Australian Standard Classification of Religious Groups and may be requested by contacting standards@abs.gov.au (mailto:standards@abs.gov.au) . The correspondence tables in the data cube have been updated to include additional and amended partial correspondences, and correct formatting and typographic errors. An 'Explanatory Notes' sheet has been added.
